

DIRECTOR OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS

When the Perry school systems do not employ a federal programs director, the superintendent shall assume the responsibility for these duties. The superintendent has the authority to delegate this responsibility to a qualified administrative assistant.

The Perry School District assures that federally funded programs will receive an equable amount of monies for materials and supplies. Also, teachers, administrators, and support personnel will be provided on an equable basis at all schools. The Perry School District will meet all state accreditation standards for staffing and provision of instructional material and equipment.

The superintendent or administrative assistant will report semi-annually to the school board on all federal programs and keep the administration advised of pending charges in the various programs.
