

LESSON PLANS

It is the belief of the Perry Board of Education that in order to progress there must be a plan. Teachers are expected to plan for each class period in order to make them effective. As long as the teachers are well prepared and seem to be making progress, the form and extent of the lesson plans will be left to their discretion. Principals may require that lesson plans be submitted for review.